HELPING HANDS FROM DOWN UNDER AUSTRALIAN IMMIGRATION

An innovative new website is helping to ease the strain of emigrating or migrating to Australia by offering a comprehensive support network before, during and after the move.

E Resourcing Australasia (eRA) an online one stop-centre - for moving, living and working in Australia - was set up by a British expatriate Christopher Hare who moved to Australia some years ago with his family. His experiences led him to come up with an interactive website where specialists will discuss whether or not the move is a good idea, challenging the decision and helping them consider any concerns before making a move.

Realising that the decision to emigrate abroad is a huge step, not to mention incurs a huge financial burden, eRA are offering the fantastic opportunity to win either one of six Oz Migration memberships absolutely free, or one of six Webinar sessions soon to be released.

eRA gives help at every stage of the move, starting with the immigration advice and the visa application process. They can also help with finding a job, giving detailed advice on specialisms such as aviation training, executives, healthcare, ICT, education, along with 'Others' Skills & Professions in very high demand, providing virtual "job boards", where candidates can look for jobs and leave their details.

Australian employers and recruiters in turn, can consider candidates and even possible sponsorship of the candidate, from the candidate's details recorded on the website (secure area) whilst employers and recruiters post their latest vacancies.

The site also offers support to people wanting to purchase and set up their own business within Australia, a growing virtual "business board" (advertising businesses for sale) as well as a health check, to help sustain and develop existing businesses, via seasoned consultants and links to a list of expert partners.

To celebrate the launch of the website, Managing Director Christopher Hare is offering six Oz Migration membership packages (Desktop Service) and six Webinar places (Emigrate to Australia) absolutely free, which will allow them to make the decision on facts as apposed to hear-say and rumours, by people qualified through experience, as well as certified professionals.

To apply for the free membership or the webinar session, log onto their website www.e-ra.biz and register your details (in any of the recruitment areas, Others, Aviation Training or Platinum Select sections) or subscribe now for Oz Migration membership and you will be in with a chance of winning a free *Oz Migration membership (Desktop Service) or webinar session.
